SEN. TILLMAN COMPLAINS OF THE TRUNK LINES

Claims They Are Guilty of Outrageous and Tyrannical Conduct

RATE BILL STILL IS BEFORE THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, June 5.—During the consideration today of the conference report of the Railroad Rate Bill, Foraker indicated a purpose to insist upon an explanation of the charge made by the conferees in including lateral or branch lines among those upon whose request common carriers shall be required to put in switches or switch connections. Senator Tillman had explained the amendments on which he thought it possible points of order could be made because of the presence of new matter, but had not included the amendment in question. When Tillman expressed the opinion that the conferees had not transgressed their authority in this matter the Ohio Senator dissented, saying the suggestion had been made in the Senate and had been voted down, and that it was clearly new matter. He therefore thought that the Senate should be told why the change had been made Senator Tillman replied that it was because of the tyrannical and outrageous conduct of the trunk lines in such cases as that of the Red Rock Company in West Virginia."

Tillman expressed the opinion that the only conference change against which a point of order will lie is that extending for sixty days the time when the rate bill shall go into operation. That, he conceded, is clearly out of order.

The report was then temporarily laid aside and the Senate took up and passed the Naval Appropriation Bill.

Returning again to the Railroad Rate Bill, Senator Foraker criticised the conferees on account of the new matter saying that the conferees were not legislators, but mere intermediaries. He also objected to the change in the anti-pass provision, making especial complaint of elimination of the railroad employes from the privilege of free transportation

Senator Tillman replied that the change had been made at the demand of the conference members of the House. He promised to do the best possible if the bill should be sent back. "I don't know what we can accomplish," he said, "for there are some hard headed men in the House as well as in the Senate."

Foraker found fault with the amendment prohibiting discrimination for or against passengers on account of color. He said several negroes had complained of the provision as a recognition of the "Jim Crow" law of the south, but that

BOGUS NEWSPAPER MAN WRITES BOGUS CHECKS

FORMER REPORTER ON 'CHRONICLE' IN TOILS

Is Arrested for Writing Checks That no Bank on Enrth Would Honor and May Escape on a Technicality—Has Done it Before

J H NICHOLSON was arrested last last night by Officers Trembley and Morrell and placed in jail because he is too facile with his hand writing and signs checks that no bank on earth will honor.

Nicholson is not a stranger to this class of work. He was formerly a reporter on the Chronicle, and found the pay insufficient to quench an abnormal thirst so he signed checks to the extent of about $200 and then left suddenly for Portland He was extradited and brought back to San Francisco. He was tried and sentenced to ninety days in the county jail. He served his sentence

A peculiar thing about Nicholson's "business transactions" is the fact that he has always some loop hole of escape or some mitigating circumstance that saves him from an extended vacation in a penitentiary.

In the San Francisco episode his checks were drawn on a Los Angeles bank where, formerly, he had had a bank account. At the time of the influx of the checks he had about six dollars in the southern institution, but because he had had no notice that his account was overdrawn a technicality saved him from a vacation at Folsom or San Quentin.

To acquaintances that he met in Reno, since his arrival here, he stated that he had entirely recovered from his tendency to write checks, that he was not drinking and that he intended to get along on his salary as reporter on the Sparks Forum Being a competent newspaper man he was getting along nicely when on last Saturday night he started off on the wrong foot again.

He got broke in the course of the evening and pulled out the fatal check book. He persuaded the manager of a resort on Commercial flow to cash a check for ten dollars But the tiger's claws were sharp and another check for ten dollars was cashed in the same way The Nevada Bank was the payee. The checks came back on Monday dishonored, and Nicholson, who had a saving streak of luck at the tables just managed to save his neck by taking up the checks. To celebrate he proceeded to get drunk all over again and on Monday night was arrested for drunkenness and housed in the city jail Yesterday morning he was liberated only to be hunted for again when it appeared that while drunk he had gone the 'check route" again

Among those who trustingly accepted the bogus checks are Adolph Manheim, Campbell at Sparks, Behler & Olin also of Sparks, and M. Frank & Co., of this city

As he is said to have had a small account with the Nevada Bank there is a possibility that he will escape again on a technicality; but it is doubtful if Nicholson will ever be able to cash another check in either Reno or Sparks even if it is certified by the president of the bank on which it is drawn.

WILL ADVOCATE BRYAN

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 5.—That unusual interest is being taken in the Indiana Democratic convention which will convene here Thursday is shown by the early arrival of a large number of the leaders. Possible endorsement of a candidate for the presidency is causing much feeling between the rival wings of the party.

An earnest effort will be made by the friends of William J. Bryan to have the convention declare in his favor, and Bryan sentiment was outspoke nmong the delegates tonight.

CONTEST OF STANFORD WILL TREATED LIGHTLY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—The suit filed yesterday by Annie F. Cunningham Stanford against the Stanford estate is treated lightly by the attorneys for the executors. Mountford S. Wilson declares that the claim of Asa Stanford's supposed widow possesses no merit whatever, and will be fought without the possibility of a compromise or settlement of a dollar.

"This woman's claim," said Mr. Wilson today, "in the judgment of the executors and their attorneys, Wilson & Wilson and Judge Samuel F Leib, is entirely without merit. It was presented to the executors and rejected before she arrived on this coast. The allegations charging my dead brother, Russel Wilson, and Mrs. Stanford with conspiracy, are entirely untrue and false in every sense. There was no conspiracy and nothing was concealed. Indeed, the statement that $500,000 worth of stock was held in trust for Asa Stanford is utterly ridiculous. Not one dollar will be forthcoming on such a claim and the suit will be contested to the very end."

STORM SWEEPS AWAY MANY OKLAHOMA HOMES

STOCKTON, Cal., June 5.—The trial of Mrs. Emma Le Doux for the alleged murder of A. N McVicar was begun in department two of the superior court at 10 o'clock this morning with Judge W. B. Nutter presiding

The district attorney in introducing the case confined himself to reading the indictment which simply charges Mrs. Le Doux with the willful murder of A. N. McVicar in this county on or about March 24 1906.

The defense will attempt to prove that McVicar's came to his death by his own hand, either by design or accident.

J F. McBridge, the bartender, started out after the men and on catching up with them was fired at by Hanlon who shot three times point blank at McBridge. The latter's face was powder burnt but he escaped serious injury, the bullets grazing his shoulder McBridge shot Hanlon in the groin and thigh, breakig his leg Hanlon was captured but his companions got away. Deputy Sheriff Drake came from Wells and took Hanlon to Wells. His wounds are not serious.

TERRIFIC STORM DOES DAMAGE IN THE EAST

PITTSBURG, June 5—A terrific electric storm here today deluged the streams, caused many thousands of dollars' damage by lightning, tied up the street car traffic for a time and frightened many residents of the east end, where the storm was the most severe. Lightning struck the Point Breeze Presbyterian Church, one of the most elaborate church edifices in the city, shattered the steeple, broke several costly stained glass windows and destroyed the electric light wiring.

BRYAN IS ADVOCATED FOR THE PRESIDENCY

MAY PUT MUTUAL OUT OF BUSINESS IN STATE

SEATTLE, Wash., June 5.—On the complaint of State Mine Inspector D. C. Botting, Dr. Livingstone, surgeon for the Pacific Coast Company at Black Diamond and other prominent men, Deputy Insurance Commissioner Shiveley has taken measures against the Mutual Reserve Insurance Company and its agents here under the anti-rebate law of 1905. Botting, Livingstone and several others were, it is alleged, induced to take "advisory board" policies through which they were entitled to a rebate or commission on insurance written by the company through their aid. This practice is held to be illegal under the law against rebates and on Monday a hearing will be had at Olympia which may result in putting the company out of business in this State.

GOULD LINE APPLIES FOR A FRANCHISE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—The Board of Supervisors has been petitioned by the Western Pacific for a 46 year franchise. The company is ready to begin construction as soon as the franchise is obtained. The reason for the selection of this term for the franchise is supposed to be because the company in its application for a franchise from the county line, made three years ago, asked that it run for fifty years, and it probably wishes its new application to conform in time with the one previously made. The previous application is still in the office of the city engineer

MISSOURI APPLAUDS NAME OF THE NEBRASKAN

Bryan Sentiment Pervades the State Convention and the Corrupt Use of Money is Given as Reason for His Failure on His Last Candidature

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., June 5—The Democratic state convention today nominated Rube Ogelsby of Warrensburg for railroad and warehouse commissioner and Howard A Cass of Jefferson City for superintendent of public schools

The convention was noteworthy for its Bryan sentiment Every mention of the Nebraskan's name brought applause and the platform adopted contains the following plank:

"It has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of every patriotic, intelligent and fair-minded American that William J. Bryan was defeated for the presidency when he was the candidate of the Democratic party, by the corrupt use of an enormous slush fund aggregating millions of dollars, contributed by great corporations and by those interested in special industries enjoying special privileges under the law.

"The charges made by Democratic leaders and the Democratic press that this was true, which charges were at the time indignantly denied, with a great show of virtue, now substantially proven to be true We declare that it is alike due to Bryan himself and to the integrity of our institutions, that he would be elected to the highest office of chief magistrate of the nation at the election to be held in 1908, of which position he was deprived by methods calculated to discredit and put to shame the entire American electorate, and we pledge to him our support and aid that his nomination and election may be attained. We unhesitatingly declare that a fair and honest election, free from coercion or the corrupt use of money, at which the American people may be given, what it is their right to have, an untrammeled opportunity to express their sovereign will at the ballot box, is an important issue in American politics today."

When he left there this afternoon five furnaces were running at the smelters, and the concentrator was running at half capacity. More Mexican miners returned to work today. General Torres and Governor Ysabel still remain at Cananea

"Americans on this side of the line and in Sonora," said Douglas "are grateful to Governor Ysabel for his prompt action taken to protect lives and property at Cananea, even at the risk of his bringing down criticism upon his own head from the Mexican people His action in taking the armed volunteers from Bisbee under his escort, 220 strong, Saturday morning, although they did not fire a shot, had the moral effect of preserving peace until the arrival of Colonel Kosterlitzky's troops, and as a result of his action Governor Ysabel has received the strongest praise and commendation from Americans on both sides of the line"

OVERSEERS ARE MURDERED

PIETERMARITZBURG, Natal, June 5—A report was in circulation yesterday that 300 natives employed on a railway extension had attacked their Italian overseers and murdered several of them, but later reports show that the affair was of a trivial nature, having been confined to natives and that no Europeans were injured.

Contest Seems to Lie Between Hon. E. S. Farrington of Elko and Judge W. A. Massey, Prominent Attorney of Reno

CARSON CITY, June 5.—The all absorbing topic in political circles at present is the matter of the succession to the United States Circuit judgeship for the district of Nevada, which has been rendered vacant by the resignation of the Hon Thomas P. Hawley, to take effect June 30th. This resignation came like a bolt of lightning from a clear sky, although four years ago when Judge Hawley became entitled to resign at full pay there were various rumors that he was about to vacate the bench. At that time a number of Republican attorneys were exercising their strongest pulls for the mantle of Elijah. The resignation was not known even by Clerk Edwards or Stenographer Torreyson until asknowledgment was received from Washington Monday morning.

The two strongest candidates for Judge Hawley's vacated position are E. S. Farrington of Elko, W. A Massey of Reno. Friends of the former point to him as a splendid candidate, for Mr. Farrington is not only learned in the law and otherwise eminently qualified, but he has rendered signal service for his party, having twice sacrificed himself on the Republican ticket when his party had not the remotest chance of success. But Mr. Farrington, who is associated with Hon. C. E Mack of Reno in the practice of law, has built up such a lucrative business that there is a possibility that he would not accept a position carrying with it a salary of six thousand dollars per annum and a life tenure.

Judge Massey, on the authority of his law partner, Judge Cheney, would accept the position. Judge Massey is one of Nevada's brightest legal lights and he has already served a term on the supreme bench of the state. Like Mr. Farrington he is in every way capable of filling the duties of the position in a manner entirely satisfactory to both litigants and the political powers that be. In order, however, to accept this position, it will be necessary to place his senatorial boomlet in the cold storage, something that the Hon. E. S. Farrington would likewise be compelled to do should he don the judicial ermine

Admitting, for the sake of argument, that both Massey and Farrington are candidates for the position, the influence of Hon Sardis Summerfield at once becomes an important factor in the situation It is generally conceded that Mr. Summerfield is his party's leader in this state, so far as relations with the administration are concerned. It is now generally known that Mr. Summerfield was not a candidate for re-appointment to the United States attorneyship for the district of Nevada, but that he conserved his influence with the administration for another matter, namely, it is believed, the naming of the United States circuit judge, to succeed Hawley It is almost a settled fact that as Summerfield wills, so goes the appointment But when approached in the matter of his choice, Summerfield out-sphinxes the sphinx

TO GET MORE MONEY FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

After Dr. M. R. Walker, C. H. Burke and A. Nelson were formally admitted to the board of school trustees Monday evening, the members went into consideration of finances and repairs for the coming year, it being understood that the schools are badly in need of money.

Secretary Webster expresses his opinion that with the additional levy of 15 cents on each $100 of valuation, the board will be able to make out. This assessment will bring in an additional revenue of approximately $8000 a year. The first installment of this sum will be ready to use b January next. As about $10,000 must be expended in repairs this year, the secretary states that the additional levy of 15 cents will have to be continued for at least two years.

In about four weeks teachers for the coming year will be chosen.

About $2000 of the special levy must be used to pay teachers. The old school building on West street will have to be entirely replastered. It will be necessary to erect a new school building next year, owing to the crowded condition of the schools. It is proposed to amend the law at the next session of the legislature so as to provide for a school bond issue, by a majority vote of those voting.

IN DENVER

There Is Reason to Believe, Judge Thinks in Issuing Order of Court, That Corporations Have Acted in the Interests of Certain Companies

DENVER, June 5.—Judge John I. Mullins, in the criminal division of the District Court this afternoon, granted the petition of the Honest Election League praying for the calling of a Grand Jury to investigate the alleged frauds perpetrated by the Denver Public Utility Corporations in the interests of certain franchises at the election held on May 16th last.

The court also expressed the belief that the character of the testimony which was offered during the hearing of the petition was sufficient to convince any court that the Sheriff and the Coroner of the city and county were not the proper persons to assist in calling such a jury, and that the District Attorney was not the proper person to lay before the jury the matters to be investigated.

The very nature of the testimony, the court seemed to think, indicated that a bold conspiracy had been entered into by the corporation heads, who were likewise the heads of the political party with which three officials were closely interested. Judge Mullins seemed to be of the opinion also that the usefulness of the Grand Jury would be increased with special officers for the jury whose attitude toward the interests to be investigated would be questioned and who would be absolutely unprejudiced one way or the other.

NAVAL APPROPRIATION BILL PASSES SENATE

WASHINGTON, June 5. — The Senate today passed the Naval Appropriation Bill and also gave considerable attention to the conference report on the Railroad Rate Bill The only important amendment to the naval bill requires the Secretary of the Navy to submit plans for the proposed big warship to Congress before proceeding with its construction The bill carries an appropriation of $103,117,670.

There is no doubt that the rate bill will be sent back to conference Senator Tillman admitted that some of the changes made in conference cannot be justified under the rules, but said that they had been necessary in order to make the bill harmonious.

Senator Foraker criticised the changes in the anti-pass bill, the addition compelling connections with lateral lines and the omission of th provision regarding "Jim Crow" cars.

Discussion of the report will continue.

ARKANSAS DEMOCRATS HOLD LIVELY MEETINGS

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., June 5.—The Democratic State convention convened at 10.30 o'clock this morning and effected a temporary organiation and adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock

Indications are that several contests yet unannounced will appear in the convention, one for the United States senatorial nomination not being improbable.

What was supposed would result in a test vote of the strength of Governor Davis and Senator Berry today developed nothing more than a test of the strength of John S. Little, who will be the nominee for Governor Neither Senator Berry not Governor Davis will discuss his plans.

THE PALACE SHOP AND ITS SOLE PROPRIETOR

J. W. Scott and W. J Shank, who for four years operated the Palace barber shop in partnership, have dissolved their business ties and Mr Shank is preparing to go to Manhattan, while Mr. Scott has assumed the sole control.

Scott's success in the new arrangement is certain to be a continuation of his former success He and his partner purchased the business from Al North about two years ago and maintained the high reputation of the now prosperous hotel man.

The Palace shop has the distinction of being the largest tonsorial establishment in the state. The attendants at the eight chairs are all artists, and there is no shop in the state more popular than Scott's Palace.

A recent innovation is the reduction in the price of children's hair cutting. "Dutch cuts." "Buster Brown" cuts and these varieties in hair cutting are a specialty at the Palace. No lady need fear embarassment at going there with her children, for courteous treatment is assured.

A host of personal and business friends will wish for Mr. Scott a continuance of his success under the new regime

No Outward Display of Hostility on Part of Miners and Officials of the Organization Promise There Will be no Trouble in the District

DILLONVALE, O., June 5.—With a total of 1,150 members of the Ohio National Guard comprising the pick of two regiments of the state militia on guard, quiet reigns tonight in this and other mining villages in this section. The troops began arriving at an early hour today and tonight the main body is bivouaked in the hills surrounding the Bradley mine, one and a half miles south of Smithfield. At the offices of the coal company it was announced that all of the guards whose presence at the mines is alleged to have been the cause of the riot Sunday night have been relieved from duty. There was no outward display of hostility on the part of the miners on the arrival of the state troops, and officials of the miners organization say there will be no trouble

USELESS BATTLESHIPS

BERLIN, June 5.—The four battleships, the Kaiser, Deutschland, Pressen and Friederich der Grosse, built immediately after the foundation of the German empire, have been ordered stricken from the list of effective vessels of the German navy. In the course of eighteen months seven battleships, four cruisers and three gunboats have been dropped from the list of effectives.

NATURALIZATION BILL ALMOST INCRIMINATING

WASHINGTON, June 5.—In many particulars today was a "red letter" day in the House, not only in the number of bills passed, but in the general character of the legislation enacted. What bid fair to cause endless trouble, the naturalization bill, was passed under suspension of the rules, the Speaker and the gentleman in charge of the bill, Bonynge of Colorado, doing team work of a superior kind. The House refused to pass a bill leasing to a private firm or corporation the right to mine coal on the Island of Batan in the Philippine group, although it was stated that such a lease would decrease the amount paid by the Government very considerably

For two hours the House worked under suspension of the rules. The rest of the day was taken up with the passage of bills by unanimous consent.

Democrat Will Again Be Governor of Oregon, Though Other Offices Are Captured by the Republican Nominees With Good Majorities

PORTLAND, Or., June 5.—George E. Chamberlain, Democrat, has been re-elected Governor of Oregon by a majority of not less than 1,000, and perhaps as much as 2,500 over Dr. James Withycombe, Republican. Jonathan Bourne Jr., Republican, has received the popular nomination for United States Senator by probably a little over 6,000 plurality. W. R. Ellis, Republican, has been chosen Congressman in the second district by a large majority over J. H. Graham, Democrat, and W. C. Hawley, Republican, has a safe lead over C. V. Galloway in the first district. Woman suffrage was defeated by a large majority. Figures outside of Multnomah county on this issue are very slow in coming in, and are valueless except an indication of the sentiment. In Multnomah it was defeated by about 3,500 majority.

PRETTY WEDDING IN THE CAPITAL CITY

CARSON CITY, June 5.—In a very pretty ceremony performed at the home of the bride's father tonight, when Miss Kate Reker became the wife of Robert Gracey, formerly of Virginia City, but lately of Wabuska, where he is a telegraph operator.

The home was beautifully decorated in pink and white, and Rev. H. A. R. Ramsey of the Episcopal Church, performed the marriage rites of his church.

Miss Carrie Reker, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Ira Carter was the best man.

After the ceremony an elaborate wedding supper was served to many guests and the couple prepared for their trip to their future home in Wabuska.

The bride will be remembered as the young lady who took second place in the contest for carnival queen at the last carnival given in this city

Mrs. Ayers was taken, seven weeks ago, to the city to be operated on and was believed to have been greatly benefited by the capital operation that was performed. For some time she showed marked improvement, but later news from the bedside states that she has apparently suffered a relapse, and while not in immediate danger, her condition is regarded as serious.

Her husband, Albert D. Ayers, is in constant communication with the patient. A host of friends will hear with sorrow of the precarious condition of Mrs. Ayers and will hope and pray for a speedy deliverance from her sickness and a quick convalescence such had not been the intention, the only purpose being to secure proper treatment for all where the "Jim Crow" system prevailed.

Senators Bailey of Texas and Bacon of Georgia denied that any discrimination is practiced in their respective States.

Senator Gallinger criticised the provision fixing the salary of the Secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission as new legislation and said that Mosely, the present Secretary, had tried to make it appear that he (the Senator) had spoken of him (Mosely), as an anarchist and that such was not the case. He had, however, said that the Secretary would be better off if he would give attention to his office and cease trying to influence legislation. The matter was still under consideration when the Senate adjourned.

AN ADDITION TO MUSICAL CIRCLES

Reno's musical circles have received a welcome addition in the person of Miss Rose Carlotta Mitchell, who is eminently skilled both as a vocalist and instrumentalist.

Miss Mitchell received her vocal training under Madame Cappiaul of New York City and her guitar lessons in Italy. Her instructor on the mandolin was given by Hayden Baston.

For several years Miss Mitchell was a member of the faculty of the Illinois Women's College at Jacksonville. She also taught in other portions of the east.

Miss Mitchell will make Reno her home, residing with Miss Ida M. Coates, the artist, at First and West streets. She will receive a limited number of pupils in both vocal and instrumental music.

Efforts of Senators Newlands and Nixon to Get Bill Before Senate May Not Be Effective Until Next Meeting of Congress

Mayor Wilson has just received a letter from Senator George S. Nixon at Washington, D. C., stating what progress has been made in regard to the proposed widening of First street, between Virginia and Center streets, twenty feet, and the relocation of the postoffice building in order that it may be done.

Senator Nixon states that he has prepared a bill, for early introduction in the Senate, ceding twenty feet off the north side of the postoffice site, the strip to be used for street purposes only. He inclosed a copy of the draft of the bill to the Mayor, and adds that on being informed that it is satisfactory to the authorities here, he will at once introduce the bill in the Senate.

The Senator adds that he will do everything possible to have the Senate act on the bill this session, but states he does not feel very sanguine that the bill can be passed, owing to the contemplated early adjournment of Congress.

The supervising architect of the Treasury has signified that he is willing to relocate the building, by setting it farther back toward the river, as proposed, and take chances that Congress will enact legislation giving the Secretary of the Treasury the power necessary to deed the twenty-foot strip to the city. Senator Nixon states, in conclusion in the letter, that if it is found impossible to get congressional action, the space of twenty feet in front of the building will be used as a lawn, but not for street purposes and will add to the attractiveness of the building. In a previous letter Senator Nixon stated that it would be impossible to relocate the postoffice building thirty-three feet south of the south line of First street on account of the irrigation ditch between the building and the river.

In the correspondence to Wilson is also inclosed a copy of a letter from Secretary of the Treasury Shaw to Senator Nixon, date of May 26th ult., in regard to the matter. In this letter the Secretary calls attention to the fact that it is necessary to remove the location of the building only seventeen feet south to permit the widening of the street twenty feet. The Secretary calls attention to the fact that the Treasury Department has no authority to dispose of a portion of a public building site for street purposes, and suggests that if the change is to be made it can be accomplished by legislation by Congress.

There is a precedent for the contemplated action in regard to the Reno building by similar action by Congress in the case of the Federal building at St. Joseph, Mo.

A drawing showing the proposed removal of the Reno building is also sent.

Although the latest information in regard to the whole matter happens to be sent by Senator Nixon, Senator Newlands has also taken an active leadership in the change since it was first proposed. Both Senators Newlands and Nixon have done all possible to carry out the desires of the local authorities and the wishes of the people to add to the beauty of the prospect of the new Government building by a wider street in front of it.

All the correspondence is now before City Attorney Stoddard for consideration of that phase of the entire proposition which properly comes before his department.

WILL BE OPERATED ON

Dr. Heppner left last night for San Francisco with a number of patients who he will accompany to that city, where they will submit to operations. Mrs. Isaac Jewell, Mr. Burnett, a patient from Floriston, and two ladies from Fallon constituted the party. These patients have been treated by Dr. Heppner and their condition is such that an operation is necessary. Dr. Heppner expects to return within a few days to resume his practice here.

LAW OFFICES IN FALLON

Attorney P. N. Packard left yesterday morning for Fallon where the firm of Pike, Jones & Packard will open a law office.

Judge Packard is well known throughout the state as a lawyer of ability and his going to Fallon is evidence of the confidence reposed in the growing district and the opportunities that are there.

The joint meeting held by the two local lodges of Odd Fellows Monday night was a great success.

The meeting was called at Harmony Hall to greet Grand Master Eggers, who paid his official visit to the city. After the work had been exemplified the members of Reno lodge and Unity lodge assembled at Eagles' Hall, where under the auspices of the sister lodge of Rebekahs a musical and literary programme was enjoyed. After the programme a dinner was served and dancing was indulged in to good music until an early hour this morning.

After Drinking the Health of the Absent Host, the Robbers Escape With About Ten Dollars in Loose Change from the Register

The Depot saloon was entered some time early Monday morning in a most sensational manner, and robbed of about $10, all the change left in the cash register.

The thieves made their escape, but if evidences are to be relied on there were three of them, for three whisky glasses were left emptied on the bar mute evidences of a toast drunk by the three uninvited guests who doubtless drank to the health of their unwitting host.

The theft was discovered by Bennett, who is manager of the place, when he appeared for duty yesterday morning.

The back door had been pried open with a crowbar and entrance to the place thus effected.

The matter was reported to the police and it is believed that the robbers are the same as those who have been busy with picks and locks these days to the great disadvantage of merchants and householders.

The robbers left absolutely no clew to their identity and unless they are caught red-handed in the act it is doubtful if they are apprehended at all.

GRAND THEATER PUTS UP EXCELLENT BILL

Among the attractions this week at the Grand Theater is Ed. Trainer, a refugee from San Francisco, who is doing an entertaining song and dance act that is proving very popular. Trainer was playing an engagement at the Orpheum when the earthquake came, and with countless others lost all his possessions.

One of the most unique and thrilling sets of moving pictures that has ever been exhibited in Reno is being shown this week. It is called "The Black Hand" and is a play in itself. The scene is laid in New York and the principal characters are taken from life in "Little Italy." The whole set constitutes as exciting a set of pictures as could be imagined and gives an idea of the life that is led in the slums of the metropolis of America.

The New York comedy four is held over another week, their success of previous weeks justifying the holdover. The work this week is different from that formerly given here and sustains the reputation of these fun makers. Billy Cross lives up to his title, "The entertaining Irish comedian," and Ray Staley continues his singing successes.

ROUND MOUNTAIN HAS A GOOD, LIVE PAPER

Another new newspaper has discovered itself in Nevada and starts out with a No. 1, Vol. 1, that is a credit to the family of State papers to which it now belongs. It is styled the Round Mountain Nugget, and is published at Round Mountain by Bartlett & Travers, well known and experienced newspaper men.

The Round Mountain Nugget should be a success and The Journal wishes it the best of luck, long life and prosperity.

It is a six-page daily and in its initial number frankly allies itself with the best interests of the State and with the mining interests in particular.

The columns are full of good meaty matter, and the editorial utterances are sane, sound and readable. The Round Mountain Nugget should be as good as its name.

Railroad Employe Has Narrow Escape While Train Is Sidetracked at Massey Yesterday Morning — Thought to Be Work of Tramps

While train No. 3 was on the sidetrack at Massey yesterday morning three shots were fired at Brakeman Jack Shields, the bullets ploughing the earth up beneath his feet and covering him with dirt. It is thought that the shots were fired by some tramps, who had been forced to get off a train by Shields on Monday morning at a small station this side of Massey. The supposition is that the tramps walked on to Massey and secreted themselves with the intention of getting revenge on the brakeman on his return trip.

The men who were put off the train by Shields were hard looking characters and are thought to be professional Yegg men, of a similar type to the four murderers of Jack Welch who were hanged at Carson City last year.

The affair has been reported to the officials at Sparks and special officers are now at work on the case with a view to capturing the men.

The old Board of School Trustees entertained the new members of the board Monday night at a business meeting. The purpose of the informal reception was to initiate the new members into the routine business of the board.

There were present Charles H. Burke, A. Nelson and Dr. Walker as guests, and F. D. King, Col. H. B. Maxson and W. D. R. Graham. The latter and Jno. Michaels are the retiring members of the board.

SNOW IN THE MOUNTAINS

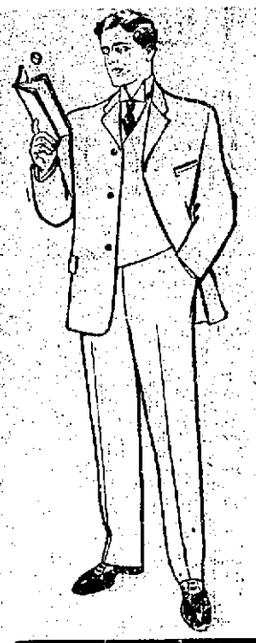

The cold wave, which blew across the Sierras Monday night, carried a fall of snow extending over the country between Verdi and Blue Canyon. On the summit "the beautiful" accumulated to the depth of a foot. In Reno the thermometer also sank toward the bulb and a cold wind raised the dust and made the weather disagreeable all of yesterday. Showers and more unsettled weather are forecast by the local weather observers.

When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. MONTE CARLO LIFE AT STEAMBOAT SPRINGS

Col. Hopkins May Make It Various Kinds of Popular Resort—James May Says He Would Build Railroad to Moana to Sell Real Estate Only

James May of the Palace is no Prince of Monaco, and says so. He denied the report, yesterday, that his application to the Board of County Supervisors for a franchise to run an electric street car line along Virginia street, and thence out the county roads to Moana Springs, carries with it any secret purpose of converting Moana into a Monaco, or a Monte Carlo, after the road is built. May states that his only intention is to increase the value of certain real estate in the country which the road would traverse and to place the real estate on the market.

On the other hand, Col. J. W. Hopkins, who has already been granted a franchise by the Board of Supervisors for an electric car line on Virginia street, with the terminus at Steamboat Springs, does not deny that he would make those springs a popular resort of the broad gauge kind. When asked last evening, at the Golden Hotel, whether he would establish a second Hot Springs (Ark.) or Monte Carlo, there, he intimated that Steamboat Springs, with a railroad completed to it, would be several kinds of a popular resort. What he stated in actual words was:

"Leave that to me; wait and see."

The colonel added: "I have not today less intention or confidence of building a railroad to Steamboat Springs, which analyses have proved are the greatest mineral springs in the world, than when I applied for and secured the franchise for a car track on Virginia street. I am more confident now, than I ever was, that the road will be built and in operation before the life of the Virginia street franchise expires, which will not be till 1988. I can say that I have been in negotiation with Eastern capitalists for some time, and that the outlook for pecuniary assistance to construct the road has never been as bright as it is right now. I have been exploiting Steamboat Springs for years and have spent thousands of dollars in doing so. It is my intention, and the intention of my associates, to make the springs the greatest resort in the State of Nevada, for the pleasure of the people of the Golden West in general, and the States of Nevada and California in particular."

May stated, however, that he had made overtures to the owners of Moana Springs to operate it as a wide open resort, but that they had refused to entertain the proposition.

Colonel Hopkins has made no sign of relinquishing his franchise on Virginia street to May and his associates, or anybody else, and the supervisors are now said to be thinking busily on the question of how it can be legally possible to grant franchises to two different parties for two different railroads on one and the same thoroughfare.

OSTEND, Belgium, June 5.—The annual international chess masters tournament was begun at the Kursaal today, when 36 competitors presented themselves to the tournament committee.

At the conclusion of nine rounds, when this will have been accomplished, the three players of each section having lowest scores will retire from further contest.

WEATHER DISCOURAGES THE TAHOE EXCURSION

On account of the continued chilly days of June the proposed excursion scheduled by Traffic Manager Taggart for Lake Tahoe next Sunday has been abandoned until another week. A later announcement will give the date of the excursion, which will be postponed until the weather bureau prophesies better weather than that at present prevailing.

It is not because the day would be unpleasant at Tahoe, for though a trifle cold the climate there is most delightful at this season, but because of the fact that the Reno traffic would surely not justify at this time the expense of another excursion, that it the reason for the temporary delay in the date of the second excursion to Tahoe.

Meantime the resorts around the lake, are filling up with tourists from San Francisco and other California points as well as from the east, and the season has opened in earnest at what is conceded to be one of America's most favored spots, and one of the world's wonders—Lake Tahoe.

COLORADO CAPITAL FOR MINES AT FAIRVIEW

Charles F. Smith of Denver Is Completing Arrangements for Development Work in the New Mining Camp

Charles F. Smith of the Gold Mines Exploitation and Development Company of Denver, Colo., arrived here yesterday from Fairview and left last evening for Denver to complete arrangements for extensive developing a number of excellent properties which he has secured for his company in Churchill county.

In speaking of the new camp yesterday, Smith gave it as his opinion that it has the greatest showing for its size of any camp in the history of the country.

"The men going into Fairview now," said Smith, "are not of the booming class. Instead, they are men who have made fortunes in mining and who have waited until camps have proven their worth for a year or two before venturing in. The fact that they are going into Fairview this early shows they know there is something there."

Smith is one of the best known mining men in Colorado. His company owns the famous King Solomon property at Cripple Creek, as well as several other paying mines in the Centennial State.

For several months past he has had representatives in Nevada quietly buying up property. He is interested in Manhattan, as well as at Silver Peak and Austin.

The company's holdings at Fairview consist of the Diamond group of three claims, one mile southwest of the strike made on the Nevada Hills and the Edith Et Al. group of twelve claims, located close by.

Smith will spend three weeks at Denver, after which he will return to Fairview.

DEVELOP CLAIMS IN WHITEHORSE DISTRICT

Dr. T. H. Trinwith, of Milwaukee, who has been in Nevada for the past year, has just bonded five claims of the Indian Queen group in the Whitehorse district, belonging to R. M. Norris and leaves today for Milwaukee, where he will organize a company to actively develop the properties.

Dr. Trinwith expects to be absent from the state about three weeks, as the organization of the company is already assured, and on his return the development will be begun at once.

Bar Silver Drops

NEW YORK, June 5.—There was an abrupt decline today in the price of bar silver, with a sympathetic fall in Mexican dollars. It was attributed to recent heavy sales of the metal for East Indies account. Bar silver fell from 67¼ to 66 cents an ounce and Mexican dollars to 51c.

BACK TO THE MINES

Archie Elkin, the well known young Fairview and La Platte mining man, who was here on a visit to his mother, left yesterday morning for his properties in Churchill county. He goes prepared to begin extensive development work on several of his claims and will be absent for the next three months at least.

MUCH MACHINERY FOR BEOWAWE MINES

Colorado Parties Have Secured a Bond on Keystone Mining Property for Fifty Thousand Dollars and Will Do Development Work

Three carloads of machinery were shipped by team from Beowawe to the Keystone mining property, fifty miles south of Beowawe, this week. Frank Curieux of Beowawe, who has been here this week, and who is engaged in business at Beowawe, states that Colorado parties have recently secured a bond for $40,000 on this property. It was carefully experted and on the report the machinery is now being shipped in. The property is to be extensively developed.

It is a gold proposition. It is an ore similar to that in the Cortez mines, located close by.

Quite a number of men are now at work on this property, though the present force is to be greatly increased during the next few months.

STOCKS AND MINES

Mining News from the J. M. Fulton Brokerage Company

The Bullfrog district as a great, permanent, high-grade milling camp offers more opportunities for investment than any other camp in the State. We are more impressed with the permanency and magnitude of the Bullfrog district as the days go by, and as we get the reports of the engineers and investors who have made a careful investigation of the camp and it's possibilities. For the benefit of mining investors we would particularly like to call their attention to one fact, and that is the number of Bullfrog stocks selling above par. They are as follows: Providence, Shoshone, Polaris, Denver, Tramp, Eclipse, Gold Bar, Shoshone Consolidated, and more due for the par list. There are eight in all, which is the most remarkable record ever made in a mining camp a year and a half old. Goldfield has five stocks in the par list; Jumbo, Red Top, Mohawk, Combination and Florence. Tonopah has seven in the par list—Belmont, Jim Butler, Midway, Montana, Tonopah, Tonopah Extension and West End. The Tonopah camp is five years old.

Manhattan advises of four big strikes made in that district during the past week. These were made on the Stray Dog, Consolidated Extension, Paymaster and Little Grey. Everything is looking well in this camp, owing to the large amount of development work being done at the present time.

Virginia City stocks lower on the San Francisco Exchange today. Assessment of 15 cents levied on Mexican, 25 cents on Caledonia and 10 cents on Sierra Nevada. Mohawk increasing in value slow but sure; in strong demand around $1.60 today. This is a big mine and will make money for shareholders. Booth selling for 33 cents; reports from the mine say everything is looking well. Booth will be a winner.

We are daily getting quotations from the San Francisco, New York, Oakland and Goldfield Stock Exchanges, and can get for our customers the lowest prices for buying and the highest prices for selling. Can also obtain information relative to the merit of any mine or mines. If you do not receive our market letter send in your name and we will put you on our mailing list.

Yours truly,
J. M. FULTON BROKERAGE CO.

WHEAT HOLDS WEAK WITH TRADING LIGHT

Market Opens Moderately Firm But Soon Eases Off—Corn is Easy on Ideal Weather Reports and Oats Act in Sympathy—Provisions Firm

CHICAGO, June 5.—With the exception of moderate firmness at the opening, when commission houses and local bulls were fair buyers, the wheat market was weak all day. The increased world's shipments. This factor, however, was completely offset by weather conditions in the United States; rain being reported in Missouri, where the crop has been suffering for lack of moisture. The weakness of the corn market also ten to depress prices. Trading during the day was rather light. The market closed weak with prices at the lowest point. July opened ⅛@¼c to¼c higher at 81¼@⅜c, sold at 81⅞@½c and declined to 80¾c. Final quotations were ⅜c lower at 80⅜c.

Ideal weather for the growing crop caused a weak corn market. Other weakening factors were liberal local receipts and increased visible supplies. July closed weak, at nearly the low point, at 49¼@⅜c, a loss of ⅜c.

Oats were weak in sympathy with wheat and corn, but later became firm. The close was firm and ⅜ higher at 34¼@⅜c.

The agitation against packing methods was expected to depress prices in the provisions market but the decline was prevented by active support from local packers.

Shorts covered freely. July pork closed with a gain of 17½, lard was up 10c and ribs were 12½c higher.

PORTLAND, June 5.—Wheat—Club 72@73c; blue stem, 74@75c; valley, 72Z73c; red, 70@71c.

TACOMA, June 5.—Unchanged. Export: Blue stem, 74c; club, 72c; red, 69c.

The Visible Supply

NEW YORK, June 5.—The visible supply of grain June 2, as compiled by the New York Produce Exchange was as follows: Wheat, 30,811,000 bushels; decrease 1,152,000. Corn, 3,370,000 bushels; increase, 1,061,000. Oats, 8,976,000 bushels; decrease, 1,400,000.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

THE PACKING HOUSE INVESTIGATION

THE revelations brought about by the report of the commission that has been examining the sanitary condition existing in the big packing houses, is well calculated to arouse the public and compel a halt in the practices of these giant corporations where nothing else would. The high source from which these charges emenate precludes the possibility of any mistake or that they are the irresponsible utterances of some newspaper or magazine space writer or "muck raker."

We are all familiar with the charges that were made during the Spanish war, when more men died from the effects of eating "embalmed" beef and other impure and adulterated food stuffs than were killed by Spanish bullets. At that time, the packers arose and protested that our national honor was at stake and as a result there was a complete whitewash of the whole despicable business, although the general public have never acquitted them of the charges then made. Since these later investigations have been under way, the packers have sought by every means in their power to prevent the disclosures that they knew must follow any truthful description of their methods. They have gone so far as to prevail upon the cattlemen of the country to send telegrams to the president protesting against the publication of the findings of the official investigators. The live stock raisers were made to believe that it would result in serious injury to the market for beef. It has long been the contention of the big packing houses that the concentration of the slaughtering houses in a few big centers was in the interest of economy to the consumer as well as a guarantee of cleanliness in handling. Now it would appear that we had far better return to the old method of local shambles, for at least we could have them under our own eyes, and certainly the prices could not be more excessive.

Not only do the big packers set the price of the beef on foot, but they indicate the selling price of the product, and it is inconceivable how an exposure of their methods of violating the general laws of health can have any material effect on the cattle raising industry. What it may result in is the establishment of a closer inspection by the government of the food stuffs that are sent out under a guarantee of purity by an official inspector who does not inspect. This is one of the things they do better in European countries than we do here. These conditions have long been known to the people of Germany and it was that knowledge that is responsible for the embargo that is placed on meats and many other prepared foodstuffs manufactured in the United States.

The packers have no one but themselves to blame for the loss of business that must result from these revolting exposures of their methods. They are reaping what they have sown. The only regret is that it did not come years ago. Certainly they cannot claim protection of the people they have deceived by their iniquitous and inexcuseable violation of all sanitary rules, for by permitting such conditions to exist they showed that the health of the public was a matter of utter indifference to them.

The Vindication of Bryan

THE following from the New York Press, a staunch Republican paper, very clearly shows the change of public sentiment with respect to William Jennings Bryan and his views:

"There are good reasons, we are bound to confess, for the better opinion which Americans now hold of Bryan than when they twice had the opportunity to vote for him. He has abandoned his free silver fallacy, and the events of the last ten years have proved that most of the charges which he made concerning the special privileges and defiant crimes of the great corporations are true. By bitter experience in their efforts to correct the evils which Mr. Bryan preached were threatening them, the American people have been convinced that the abuses which he related from the stump are more virulent than the free silver candidate himself declared them to be. * * * * It is our judgment that unless a Ryan-Belmont combination can corner the Democratic convention two years from now as it cornered that of two years ago, virtually buying the delegates on the hoof, Mr. Bryan or some one like him will be the enthusiastic choice of the Democratic party; and if Mr. Bryan is nominated we have no doubt that he will poll the votes of all those who gave him their ballots in 1900 and hundreds of thousands besides who have become disgusted with the mark-time policy of others who have undertaken to redress the wrongs of the general public and to curb the illegal and dangerous practice of the special interests which still refuse to permit the American people to make their laws and to administer in their own interest such as have been made."

Cost of an Inquiry

THE life insurance investigation conducted by the Armstrong committee cost the state $72,000. The legislature had appropriated $100,000 for the work. We don't know how the taxpayers of New York feel about the matter but certainly outsiders will say it was well worth the money. No complaint has been made about the expenditures but if any should be made it is quite probable that the life insurance policy holders of the country would be willing to stand an assessment of say 50 cents each. This would yield a sum sufficient to reimburse the state of New York.

The manner in which the money was disposed of is interesting. Attorney Hughes, the chief inquisitor, was paid $25,000. As legal fees go this amount is not excessive. Mr. Hughes enjoys a large and lucrative law practice. He must have spent, first and last, not less than six months in preparing for and in conducting the investigation. One of the other two lawyers was paid $17,500 and the third $10,000. They may or they may not have earned the money but they had no very prominent part in the investigation.

It will be seen that the attorneys received a total of $52,500, or practically four-fifths of the entire sum expended. The members of the legislature received only their per diem, but for traveling and other expenses incurred by them the sergeant-at-arms paid out $15,000. For incidental expenses $2,000 was expended. All things considered, the cost of the inquiry was not excessive. There have been occasions when very much more money was spent for very much less important results.—S. L. Herald.
